From the Desk of Pastor Rae Lynn

So, school has started, the summer has ended, the schedule has gotten busier and perhaps you are wondering where do I fit into all of this and how can I live well, peacefully, energized in the midst of all of life and the expectations around me? Most of us are so busy caring for the daily responsibilities that we are not caring for ourselves. We wonder if we even have the time to care for our own soul! When and where and how do I connect with God?

I am energized by the return of fall and a schedule that grows more hectic because for me it means the offering of opportunities for you, places for you to engage for an hour a week or more where conversations and experiences can entice your mind and touch your heart. Allow me to offer to you some places that you might consider engaging in for short term studies and experiences that will momentarily give you a God-break and God blessing.

Every Thursday morning from 11:30 to 1:00 p.m. a group meets (Theme Shapers) with Pastor Rae Lynn to discuss themes and scriptures for Sunday morning messages. This is an interactive conversation around life today and how God's Word informs our living. If you work, take an extended lunch and come join the group. It's soul refreshing in the midst of your week! You may come into the group at any time. Your attendance does not need to be consistent.

Beginning October 19th for six Wednesdays, 7:00-8:30 p.m., is the Healing Prayer study called Stretch Out Your Hand, Exploring Healing Prayer. This study tackles the difficult questions we ask about faith and healing, gives great guidance on how to pray, and offers experiences of prayer. So, if your soul is weary, come and be nourished. Teachers will be Pastor Rae Lynn and one of the members of the Healing Prayer Team.

Beginning Monday, November 28th, for four Mondays, we will have an Advent study. I am looking at several resources. The one that caught my eye is this, Advent Conspiracy, Can Christmas Still Change the World? The time would be 7:30 to no later than 9:00 p.m. for four weeks.

Other study opportunities include the Thursday morning women's Bible study. They meet every Thursday morning from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. They are starting into a study on the Wisdom literature of the Bible. "Peace in the House" meets on the first and third Wednesdays from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. The goals of this group are peace with God, peace with yourself, peace with others, and keeping the peace. Another possibility if you are a mother of a preschool child is our Mothers of Preschoolers, (MOPS). This group meets the second and fourth Mondays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and always has great discussions and teachings.

Some of us find our renewal of our soul in hands-on activities of serving others and being in fellowship. The fall Garage Sale is a great week of keeping our hands busy, letting our minds freely engage the fun and fellowship of others, and feasting on good food with great folks. If you are new to Linworth, this is a phenomenal way of getting to know people. We need volunteers all week long, October 9th right after worship ends through Saturday the 15th when all is finally cleaned up and put away around 4:30 p.m. Come and join in the serving and enjoy lunch and dinner free as a worker! Guaranteed a good time and good for the soul!

Mission opportunities abound and when we are in mission, we tend to forget about ourselves as we invest in others' lives, also a wonderful way to tend to our soul. Esther has taken time to contact a variety of Saturday opportunities for us to serve beyond the walls of Linworth out in the world! The great thing is if you have a child age 12 or older they can serve along with you and learn about the joy of giving to others. The next opportunity is Saturday, October 29, from

Congratulations LUMC Third Graders!

On Sept. 25, the third graders of LUMC received their very own Bibles during the 10:15 service. The children received a "Spark Bible-NRSV." It allows them to write in it and use stickers to reference information. A very useful tool in their journey with Christ. If your third grader did not receive their Bible, please contact Alisha Meacham (ameacham@linworthumc.org or 336-8485, ext. 202). Congratulations!

Welcoming and Connecting News

Brian Gath, Associate Pastor

(bgath@linworthumc.org)

3 Great Ways to Welcome Guests

Every Sunday at Linworth we welcome about seven first-time adult guests who live reasonably nearby and have the potential to connect with our congregation. The challenge for us is to welcome these people who have come once in such a way that they choose to worship with us again. Here are three things each of us can do to provide a great welcome.

Talk to them.

Unless you know everyone, it can feel risky to welcome someone you think might be a guest – what if they aren't new? What if they come all the time?

A great way to overcome this is to own your uncertainty. Linworth is a large church. None of us expects everyone to know who we are. I often say, "Hi. I'm Brian. I'm not sure. Have we met?"

Introduce them.

Once you've met a guest, introduce them to other people. Introduce them to your friends. Introduce them to people they may have something in common with (place of work, neighbors, age, etc.). This helps our guests start to connect.

Invite them.

Don't be pushy but don't be shy. If you've met a guest and you have hit it off even a little, invite them to come with you to a ministry of the church you really like. Invite them to:

- * sit with you in worship,
- * join you for brunch,
- * come to your Sunday School or Group.

Linworth won't be the right church for every guest who worships with us one time. But all of our guests should leave saying, "Wow! What a friendly church."

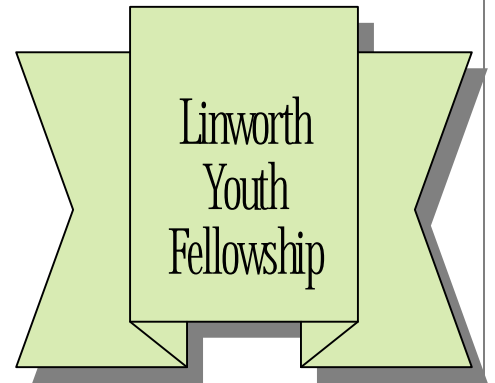

Youth News

Seth Rowe

(srowe@linworthumc.org)

Director of Youth Ministries

You may have heard about the youth ministry at Linworth changing its name from "Xtreme Impact" to "Linworth Youth Fellowship," but you may not have heard why. Not only did we want a name that is clear about who we are but we also wanted a name that said something about what we are about. The word "fellowship" describes a group of people with a common purpose and that's what we are: a group of students coming together to love God and love others.

Box Tops For Education

Linworth Children's Center is saving Box Tops for Education. Clip them and put them in the box marked, "Box Tops For Education," located across from the church office on the first floor and on several of the bulletin boards. LCC receives 10 cents for every one we collect. Thanks for your help with this LCC fund raising project.

Missions Update

Santa's Workshop Gearing Up

Win Smith reminds us that it is not too early to think about Christmas. He is beginning the drive to fill shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child (OCC). OCC is a mission formed by Samaritans Purse to spread the Gospel message to children and their families throughout the world. Over 8 million children received a shoe box last year. Since 1993 over 130 countries have received shoe boxes. Your gifts or donations help make this possible. The goal for Linworth Church this year is 100 shoeboxes. For information on how to pack a shoebox, stop by the OCC table outside the sanctuary and pick up a brochure. A $7.00 donation per box for shipping is requested. Feel free to pack a box, pay for shipping, or both. The OCC display will be on a table in the lobby through November 6. The deadline for bringing boxes to the church is November 13. If you have questions you can contact Win Smith (cbsmith686@hotmail.com).

On Assignment in Laos

As this month begins, Beth and Joel Rabb will be attending the Laos Methodist Conference in Nongkhai, Thailand, near Vientiane, Laos. After the Conference, they will meet with missionaries and local pastors around Vientiane. On October 4, they will travel to Luang Prabang in northern Laos. From there they will travel by boat to Odomxai Province where they will visit the congregations that Linworth is supporting financially, and to walk the stairway (we funded) from the Mekong to the villages.

There are multiple goals for the trip including:

1. Participating in the first Annual Conference for Laos.
2. Meeting with Bishop Ough, the missionaries, and local pastors to understand the future plans and strategies for the support of the Laos Methodist Church.
3. Identifying ways to support the development of a national strategy to support the Missionary Vocational School.
4. Bringing personal greetings from the Linworth Congregation to our brothers and sisters in Laos.
5. Being in worship with the families of children receiving scholarships.
6. Planning for the work trip in April.

This year, the support of the mission effort in Laos has been amazing. With a quiet call for support, the congregation has been overwhelming in its generosity. Since April, the congregation has contributed $10,679.32 for Laos mission projects. This includes $3,000 provided by the Mission Team, $1,500 by Linworthys, and $1,679.32 from Vacation Bible School.

So far we have spent $9,679.32 on the following projects:

- ⇒ 2 Stairways in Odomxai Province ($3000)
- ⇒ Annual church support for two churches in Odomxai Province ($2,400)
- ⇒ Initiated the Vocation School Ministry ($2500)
- ⇒ Scholarships for 119 children ($1,679.32).

9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and it is assisting at the Habitat for Humanity Restore Center. All of us are aware of the incredible ministry that Habitat provides. If that is too soon, check out the table in the hallway behind the sanctuary for more opportunities.

In April of 2012, a group of us will be traveling to Laos to connect up with our missionaries and the churches we are supporting. We don't have a specific date yet, but we will within the next two months. If you want to learn more about our ministry and role in Laos, come and meet with Bishop Ough and our team who will be hosting an event at Linworth on November 14th. We will begin with a light supper at 6:30 p.m., Bishop Ough will speak to us from 7:15 to 8:00 p.m. and then after a brief break, any of you who want to become more involved in this ministry and/or travel to Laos next April are invited to stay and learn more. A trip to Laos and southeast Asia in April is a way to meet God in others and return home a very different person than when you left.

Finally, the best way to be restored weekly is to come and worship with your friends, learning more about the God who loves you and receiving God's love through music, prayer, the message, and the presence of others. I hope and pray that in the midst of the busyness of life, each of us becomes serious about the care for our soul and finds a way through this faith community to be nurtured and nourished. If you still struggle to find something that breathes life into your soul, call us, your staff is willing to sit with you, have coffee and listen to your needs.

I am, and enjoy being, in ministry with you!

Rae Lynn
